Dear Parents,

WELCOME to CTC/TOTAL Hebrew School! We are looking forward to another productive year with a motivated group of students and families. Below is some information that you will find useful. We look forward to hearing from you soon.

Administration - The CTC/TOTAL Hebrew School is organized through the Community Torah Center of Bucks County. CTC is a non-affiliated Family Educational organization dedicated to the furtherance of Jewish identity and heritage through positive learning experiences.

Philosophy & Goals - The goal of our Hebrew School is to stimulate awareness among our participant families that Judaism can be relevant. This is done through imaginative and thought provoking teaching methods and hands-on experience. The approach is to encourage the family to join in the learning process. This makes the student's education much more meaningful. We hope our students will view Hebrew School as a milestone in their life and not as a dead-end Jewish experience. The Jewish education your child will receive will be enjoyable, exciting, and with no pressure. We gauge success not by how well or how many Torah Verses he/she can recite at the Bar/Bat Mitzvah celebration. Rather, our desire is that every week, each child actually looks forward to learning about Judaism, thus making Judaism a lifelong endeavor.

Schedule - Classes are held once a week on Sunday mornings between 9:30am and 12:00pm. The first day of school will be September 21, 2008. There will also be programs scheduled at other times to coincide with holidays and other special occasions. Classes are held at the Council Rock High School South Building - 2002 Rock Way, in Holland.

Registration - The tuition for the 2008-09 year is $650.00 and a $50.00 registration fee per student. You may pay in full, by check or credit card, or submit post-dated checks or your credit card information towards your payment plan. Payment may be made in several equal installments made out for the first of each month beginning with September 1st. All checks must be submitted no later than August 30th.
