

Sundays are Fundays!

At CTC, our interactive, one-day-a-week Hebrew school program is fun, exciting, informative and designed to build your child's confidence along with his Jewish knowledge. Our proven methods instill Jewish values and virtues and broaden your child's outlook on life.

CTC, a unique educational programming and learning network, is designed to maximize your child's education while minimizing your expense. There are no membership fees and synagogue affiliation is not required.
